

WHAT THE REF SAYS...

Boarding
Strike the clenched fist of one hand into the open palm of the other hand directly in front of the chest.

Butt-Ending
A crossing motion of the forearms, one moving under the other.

Charging
Rotating clenched fists around one another in front of chest.

Checking (Women's Only)
The nonwhistle hand is placed on the shoulder and then moved out and to the side.

Clipping
Keep both skates on the ice when signaling, using right hand on the leg.

Contact to the Head
Extend arm above head and tap head with open palm.

Cross-Checking
A single forward and back motion with both fists clenched in front of the chest.

Delayed Calling of Penalty
Extend arm to upright position.

Delayed Offsides
Extend arm in the air and point to line with other arm.

Delay of Game
The nonwhistle hand, palm open, is placed across the chest and then fully extended directly in front of the body.

Elbowing
Tapping either elbow with the opposite hand.

Fighting/Punching
A double "punching" motion with fist clenched, fully extended in front of the body.

Roughing
Fist clenched, fully extending arm from the side.

Goal Scored
Point at the net with the nonwhistle hand, palm open.

Grasping the Face Mask
A single or double motion as if grasping a face mask and pulling it down.

Hand Pass
The nonwhistle hand (open hand) and arm are placed straight down alongside the body and swung forward and up once in an underhand motion.

High-Sticking
Holding both fists, clenched, one a short space immediately above the other to the side of the head.

Hitting From Behind
Arm placed behind the back, elbow bent, forearm parallel to the ice surface.

Holding
Clasp wrist of whistle hand with the other hand well in front of the chest.

Holding the Stick
Clasp wrist of whistle hand with the other hand well in front of the chest. Next, hold both fists, clenched, one a short space in front of the other at waist height.

Intentional Offside
After blowing whistle for offside, point toward offending team's special spot with nonwhistle hand.

Interference
Crossed arms with fists clenched stationary in front of chest.

Hooking
A series of tugging motions with both arms, as if pulling something toward the stomach.

Icing
The back official signals the icing situation by fully extending his free arm (without whistle) at a 65° angle. The front official shall indicate the icing is completed by extending his free arm over his head, up straight, and blowing his whistle. The back official then will move to the faceoff spot and cross arms to indicate the icing.

Timeout/Unsportsmanlike Conduct
Using both hands to form a "T" in front of the chest.

Tripping
Keep both skates on the ice when signaling, using right hand on the leg.

"Wash-out"
Both arms swung shoulder height, not waist height.

Kneeing
A single slapping of the right palm to the left knee, keeping both skate blades on the ice.

Misconduct
Hands should be moved once from sides down to hips. Thus, point to player first, hands to hips second.

Obstruction
Hands in the middle of the body in the shape of an "O". Additional infraction following obstruction.

Penalty Shot
Arms crossed (fists clenched) above the head.

Spearing
A single jabbing motion with both hands together, thrust forward in front of the chest, then dropping hands to the side.

Slashing
One stop with the nonwhistle hand across the straightened forearm of the other hand.

A WORD FROM THE COACH

Welcome to Gosport Ice Arena, where tonight we take on the
Bristol Pitbulls

Good evening everyone and welcome to the Solent Arena for tonight's game against the Bristol Pitbulls.

Last weekend saw us pick up a vital two points against the Jets in a very close competitive game, which had a little bit of everything. It was good to see our very own Mr hockey come up with two goals on the night.

Namely Drew Campbell. Drew's experience provides so much balance to our line-up, as well as the ability to produce when it matters.

Tonight, we welcome back the Pitbulls after several years away from the league.

A club close to our family given my Dads time at the club, I have always kept an eye on their progression! Rich Hargreaves has done a tremendous job on the road for so many years and now has assembled a very good team at this level.

Already they have made everyone stand up and take notice! We hope our experience at this level and playing on the small pad will be enough for the two points!

We look forward to seeing everyone in the bar after the game, although unfortunately the team will be in suits rather than costumes!

Bring the noise

SPRING CUP WINNER '21

A very warm welcome to both our amazing home fans and the away supporters!

Following on from last week's performance, playing Slough who were a tough but unknown team for us I think I'm right in saying we dominated most of the game and really gave them no chance to settle.

Talking over at the sailmaker it also seems the fans were impressed with the performance the team gave which proves the hard work in training is paying off.

Tonight, we play Bristol who seem very well structured with a lot of experienced players so we must stay vigilant and start fast & strong.

You're in for a good one! I'd like to thank you for being here and continuing to stick by us, without you we wouldn't be here!

Make some noise

I'll see you out there

ONE FAN ALONE

What a win last week, a solid 3-1 victory over the Slough Jets.

I felt there were some flashes of brilliance throughout the game, which I feel have been lacking so far this season.

Drew Campbell continues to astonish me with his goal scoring, but over all the years I've been watching the Devils, Drew has been a delight to watch - it's rare you see someone doing something they love so much and taking so much joy from it.

On the flip side, I also thought last week's game had some messy moments. We gave away a few silly penalties or get ourselves into unnecessary situations. I also think the refs should have controlled the game better.

It doesn't matter though, as the Devils got the win and pushed themselves back up to third place in the league.

Tonight's game against Bristol should be interesting, they're currently showing as seventh in the league, but that's mainly because they haven't played many games so far this season.

Bristol have only lost two - both to Slough - so once they get their season moving, I think they might actually take the league by surprise.
