A WORD FROM THE COACH

Good evening, everyone and welcome to the Solent Arena for tonight's game against the Chelmsford Chieftains!

Last week saw a close encounter against the Slough Jets not go our way in OT. It was another game where I felt we did everything other than put the puck in the net! Our PK was strong and absorbed a considerable amount of pressure in the second to gain momentum and the lead in the third. We had several power player opportunities in OT to take the game but a lack of game management from myself saw a mistake which led to our defeat.

We have worked on our special teams as well as shooting the puck more often this week in practice in the hope that it generates more scoring opportunities and goals!

This weekend we are hoping to welcome back a few players from injury but continue to have the NIHL 2 players support our squad. They have been a breath of fresh air around the team, and we are happy to have them.

Chelmsford have improved dramatically since we last played them, which is a game I will never forget! That said we cannot forget that for 95% of that game we were completely out played.

With the addition of Lascek from Invicta as well as the new import arriving this week, we will be up against it tonight in this game!

That said, we are always confident of a result in our arena and with your help and noise I am confident we can secure the 2 points!

Bring the noise

Muzza

ITS NOT ALL ABOUT US

Chelmsford in 6th at present have experienced mixed fortunes this season, the only team to beat Streatham so far this season, but with inconsistencies in other games, they have played less games than the teams around them so they are the team to watch out for in the new year.

A very warm welcome to our amazing and loud home & the travelling Chieftains' fans!

Following on from the last few weeks, we've had a bit of a rough ride but one that wasn't avoidable due to injuries and a short squad. I couldn't be prouder of the boys who have stepped up from the juniors and the remaining Devils who have had to play roles they usually wouldn't need to with a full squad. The boys have dug deep and last weekend we were very unlucky to come away with the loss from nothing other than inconsistent refereeing and us not finishing the limited opportunities we had.

I can assure you tonight's game will be action packed, we enjoy playing Chelmsford as it's always very competitive as I'm sure you'll enjoy this one to!

Make some noise & I'll see you out there

ONE FAN ALONE

It feels like so long ago that we watched the Devils give Romford Raiders a thrashing, beating them 7-1 at the Solent Thunderdome, but it was only two weeks.

What made that night more impressive, was the fact that a large proportion of the core of the team were missing – Lackey is injured and will be out for a few more weeks, Lock is injured and desperately trying to recover, Circenis has headed off to Sweden, and Lewis called up to Basingstoke.

Three new, young players got to make their debut with the Devils – Charlie Wedge, Riley Panter and Kristijonas Nekrosevicius.

The three youth players, I thought, played a fantastic game. When the Devils get into the lead, Murray likes to give the rising stars a chance to stretch their legs, and the three of the should have left here proud.

Much respect should be given to the Raiders though, as they too were short benched and at least four of their players – including the netminder came direct from an afternoon fixture to Solent to play the evening match.

Last week, the Devils went off to Slough, still short benched and with everyone expecting it to be a real tough battle.

The Devils, however, held their own and managed to nudge ahead in the second period – Calum Perella-Fox opening the scoring with a little help from Alex Murray and Mark Pitts.

Slough carried on battling though, and after a little altercation that saw Alex Cole having to leave the game, Christian Mohr picked up a power-play goal and levelled the score.

As it went to overtime, the hopes of all of the Devils fans were with the team, but unfortunately Adam Rosbottom put the puck past Chico, ending the game and seeing the Devils come away empty handed.

Devils are still sitting second in the league, but with just three points separating us from Chelmsford in sixth the battle for the league is still very much in play!
