

WHAT THE REF SAYS

Boarding
Strike the clenched fist of one hand into the open palm of the other hand directly in front of the chest.

Butt-Ending
A crossing motion of the forearms, one moving under the other.

Charging
Rotating clenched fists around one another in front of chest.

Checking (Women's Only)
The nonwhistle hand is placed on the shoulder and then moved out and to the side.

Clipping
Keep both skates on the ice when signaling, using right hand on the leg.

Contact to the Head
Extend arm above head and tap head with open palm.

Cross-Checking
A single forward and back motion with both fists clenched in front of the chest.

Delayed Calling of Penalty
Extend arm to upright position.

Delayed Offsides
Extend arm in the air and point to line with other arm.

Delay of Game
The nonwhistle hand, palm open, is placed across the chest and then fully extended directly in front of the body.

Elbowing
Tapping either elbow with the opposite hand.

Fighting/Punching
A double "punching" motion with fist clenched, fully extended in front of the body.

Roughing
Fist clenched, fully extending arm from the side.

Goal Scored
Point at the net with the nonwhistle hand, palm open.

Grasping the Face Mask
A single or double motion as if grasping a face mask and pulling it down.

Hand Pass
The nonwhistle hand (open hand) and arm are placed straight down alongside the body and swung forward and up once in an underhand motion.

High-Sticking
Holding both fists, clenched, one a short space immediately above the other to the side of the head.

Hitting From Behind
Arm placed behind the back, elbow bent, forearm parallel to the ice surface.

Holding
Clasp wrist of whistle hand with the other hand well in front of the chest.

Holding the Stick
Clasp wrist of whistle hand with the other hand well in front of the chest. Next, hold both fists, clenched, one a short space in front of the other at waist height.

Intentional Offside
After blowing whistle for offside, point toward offending team's special spot with nonwhistle hand.

Interference
Crossed arms with fists clenched stationary in front of chest.

Hooking
A series of tugging motions with both arms, as if pulling something toward the stomach.

Icing
The back official signals the icing situation by fully extending his free arm (without whistle) at a 65° angle. The front official shall indicate the icing is completed by extending his free arm over his head, up straight, and blowing his whistle. The back official then will move to the faceoff spot and cross arms to indicate the icing.

Timeout/Unsportsmanlike Conduct
Using both hands to form a "T" in front of the chest.

Tripping
Keep both skates on the ice when signaling, using right hand on the leg.

"Wash-out"
Both arms swung shoulder height, not waist height.

Kneeing
A single slapping of the right palm to the left knee, keeping both skate blades on the ice.

Misconduct
Hands should be moved once from sides down to hips. Thus, point to player first, hands to hips second.

Obstruction
Hands in the middle of the body in the shape of an "O". Additional infraction following obstruction.

Penalty Shot
Arms crossed (fists clenched) above the head.

Spearing
A single jabbing motion with both hands together, thrust forward in front of the chest, then dropping hands to the side.

Slashing
One stop with the nonwhistle hand across the straightened forearm of the other hand.

A WORD FROM THE COACH

Good evening everyone and welcome to the Solent Arena for tonight's games against the Romford Junior Raiders!

Last weekend was full of mixed emotions! Saturday, we defeated a very talented Bristol team at home, followed by a slight shock against our opponents tonight on Sunday!

Saturday's game against Bristol was a difficult but rewarding game! We knew in the build-up that they were going to be a tough team, mixed with experience like our former player Steve Osman and some exciting young British prospects such as Calumn's brother in law Cain Russel!

We took the lead and felt in control of the game, but a few power play goals for Bristol, brought them back into the game and left us needing to see out the game late on. I've been disappointed with our PK this season and it's an area we need to improve on.

Sunday saw us travel to Romford to take on the Junior Raiders. Firstly, I must admit their rink is the nicest facility in the south! We thoroughly enjoyed playing their and felt in control of the game throughout. It was a strange feeling to come away without any points but I was happy overall with our performance which dropped slightly in the third and allowed them in.

One thing to take away from Sunday is not being clinical enough in front of goal and it's something we addressed in training.

This weekend saw the news that Ralfs Circenis is moving to Sweden to pursue an opportunity in the Sweden 2nd tier. I am sure you, like me, will wish him well and I hope he has a successful spell out there!

Here is to a successful evening, one in which we remember those who lost their lives so that we can live ours - lest we forget

Bring the noise

A very warm welcome to both the loyal loud home supporters & the away Raiders fans!

Following on from last week and this is in not to be detrimental to the Raiders, I've never played in a game where we've had 90% possession but lost. The Raiders were more clinical when they needed to be and capitalised on our mistakes on PP's, congrats to them that's what makes this league so interesting!

We must be clinical this evening, every chance of a shot needs to be taken as we've been hesitant and giving up shooting opportunities for the wrong passes. We've worked hard in training to hopefully to resolve this and I'm excited your here to hopefully see our efforts produce results.

Make some noise

I'll see you out there

ONE FAN ALONE

Difficult weekend just gone for the Devils, started out with a tough Bristol Pitbulls.

I don't think many people realise how good the Pitbulls can be, but with players like Steve Osman in the line up they're obviously going to be a team that can hold their own.

The Devils battled though, and came out victorious at the end of the night. Elliott Lewis stood out to me as someone who has grown in confidence in the last few years, and I think he could really become something impressive.

Sunday away to Romford, it was great to see the Devils take an early lead just over three minutes into the game, and despite an equaliser half way through the second the Devils made it to the second break once more a point ahead.

Unfortunately for the Devils, Romford surged in the third taking the win on the night.

Tonight though, we have the Raiders at Solent, giving the Devils the home ice advantage and the benefit of a few days rest between games, let's hope they can settle the score.
