

WHAT THE REF SAYS

Boarding
Strike the clenched fist of one hand into the open palm of the other hand directly in front of the chest.

Butt-Ending
A crossing motion of the forearms, one moving under the other.

Charging
Rotating clenched fists around one another in front of chest.

Checking (Women's Only)
The nonwhistle hand is placed on the shoulder and then moved out and to the side.

Clipping
Keep both skates on the ice when signaling, using right hand on the leg.

Contact to the Head
Extend arm above head and tap head with open palm.

Cross-Checking
A single forward and back motion with both fists clenched in front of the chest.

Delayed Calling of Penalty
Extend arm to upright position.

Delayed Offsides
Extend arm in the air and point to line with other arm.

Delay of Game
The nonwhistle hand, palm open, is placed across the chest and then fully extended directly in front of the body.

Elbowing
Tapping either elbow with the opposite hand.

Fighting/Punching
A double "punching" motion with fist clenched, fully extended in front of the body.

Roughing
Fist clenched, fully extending arm from the side.

Goal Scored
Point at the net with the nonwhistle hand, palm open.

Grasping the Face Mask
A single or double motion as if grasping a face mask and pulling it down.

Hand Pass
The nonwhistle hand (open hand) and arm are placed straight down alongside the body and swung forward and up once in an underhand motion.

High-Sticking
Holding both fists, clenched, one a short space immediately above the other to the side of the head.

Hitting From Behind
Arm placed behind the back, elbow bent, forearm parallel to the ice surface.

Holding
Clasp wrist of whistle hand with the other hand well in front of the chest.

Holding the Stick
Clasp wrist of whistle hand with the other hand well in front of the chest. Next, hold both fists, clenched, one a short space in front of the other at waist height.

Intentional Offside
After blowing whistle for offside, point toward offending team's special spot with nonwhistle hand.

Interference
Crossed arms with fists clenched stationary in front of chest.

Hooking
A series of tugging motions with both arms, as if pulling something toward the stomach.

Icing
The back official signals the icing situation by fully extending his free arm (without whistle) at a 65° angle. The front official shall indicate the icing is completed by extending his free arm over his head, up straight, and blowing his whistle. The back official then will move to the faceoff spot and cross arms to indicate the icing.

Timeout/Unsportsmanlike Conduct
Using both hands to form a "T" in front of the chest.

Tripping
Keep both skates on the ice when signaling, using right hand on the leg.

"Wash-out"
Both arms swung shoulder height, not waist height.

Kneeing
A single slapping of the right palm to the left knee, keeping both skate blades on the ice.

Misconduct
Hands should be moved once from sides down to hips. Thus, point to player first, hands to hips second.

Obstruction
Hands in the middle of the body in the shape of an "O". Additional infraction following obstruction.

Penalty Shot
Arms crossed (fists clenched) above the head.

Spearing
A single jabbing motion with both hands together, thrust forward in front of the chest, then dropping hands to the side.

Slashing
One stop with the nonwhistle hand across the straightened forearm of the other hand.

A WORD FROM THE COACH

Good evening, everyone and welcome to the Solent Arena for tonight's game against the Slough Jets!

Last week saw us pick up a vital two points at home to Chelmsford in a game that could of gone either way! Chico played out of his skin and the boys dug deep against a team with two new imports and a lot of British talent. I felt we edged the first and then penalty trouble meant we were on the back foot for the second, but Chico kept us in the game.

We then got the crucial goals we needed in the third to seal victory.

Calumn has been performing really well upfront and Harry has stepped up well in D to compensate. The boys are all really buying in to the changes we have made this season and Saturday was a just reward for their efforts.

Tonight, we take on a young, energetic Slough team who we recently lost to in overtime!

The result left us second in the cup and brought other teams closer to us in the league standings which was not ideal, especially as we were on the PP for most of the OT.

Tonight, we must be fast and physical to ensure Slough never settle in the rink. Their goalie has been outstanding recently, so we hope to generate a lot of shots with traffic to get on the board.

We are delighted to have Kev Tanner re-join the squad after several years out. For those supporters who have been around since the NIHL 2 days, you'll know that we are getting someone who gives 110%, is a character on and off the ice and is a threat offensively! I'm sure you'll join me in welcoming Kev back with your support tonight!

Bring the noise

SPRING CUP WINNER '21

A very warm welcome to both our amazing home fans and the away supporters!

Following on from last weeks performance, I promised a good game and that it was! 1-1 and managed to battle in the last moment for a deserved 2-1 win. I couldn't have asked for a better performance. I'm sure you noticed every player was selfless and worked for the team, never gave up and every 50/50 was ours, it was great to see!

Tonight's game we move on to play slough, we have a win and a loss to, so we'll looking to take the win this week, Slough are young and fast so they'll be present our defence with some challenges. We will prepare as we have done for the others and hopefully we can speak positively about it after the game!

I'd like to thank every single one of you for being here and continuing to stick by us, without you we wouldn't be here!

Make some noise

I'll see you out there

ONE FAN ALONE

Early lead from Mark Pitts is always a good way to start, and lead to an exciting game for everyone lucky enough to be watching.

Chelmsford were clearly on their best behaviour - this close to Christmas they want to be on the good list - just one penalty for the whole game. The Devils too, didn't spend much time in the sin bin, which is always good!

It was heart breaking when halfway through the third Chelmsford equalised, then kept the pressure on.

Chico was up to the task though, and with less than three minutes to go, Calumn Perella-Fox pushed the Devils back into the lead, sealing the win!

For anyone that missed the news though, Chelmsford went on to smash Milton Keynes 19-0 which is a true shocker!

Tonight, we must battle Slough, our closest competition in the league this year, and hopefully a very entertaining game!
