

WHAT THE REF SAYS

Boarding
Strike the clenched fist of one hand into the open palm of the other hand directly in front of the chest.

Butt-Ending
A crossing motion of the forearms, one moving under the other.

Charging
Rotating clenched fists around one another in front of chest.

Checking (Women's Only)
The nonwhistle hand is placed on the shoulder and then moved out and to the side.

Clipping
Keep both skates on the ice when signaling, using right hand on the leg.

Contact to the Head
Extend arm above head and tap head with open palm.

Cross-Checking
A single forward and back motion with both fists clenched in front of the chest.

Delayed Calling of Penalty
Extend arm to upright position.

Delayed Offsides
Extend arm in the air and point to line with other arm.

Delay of Game
The nonwhistle hand, palm open, is placed across the chest and then fully extended directly in front of the body.

Elbowing
Tapping either elbow with the opposite hand.

Fighting/Punching
A double "punching" motion with fist clenched, fully extended in front of the body.

Roughing
Fist clenched, fully extending arm from the side.

Goal Scored
Point at the net with the nonwhistle hand, palm open.

Grasping the Face Mask
A single or double motion as if grasping a face mask and pulling it down.

Hand Pass
The nonwhistle hand (open hand) and arm are placed straight down alongside the body and swung forward and up once in an underhand motion.

High-Sticking
Holding both fists, clenched, one a short space immediately above the other to the side of the head.

Hitting From Behind
Arm placed behind the back, elbow bent, forearm parallel to the ice surface.

Holding
Clasp wrist of whistle hand with the other hand well in front of the chest.

Holding the Stick
Clasp wrist of whistle hand with the other hand well in front of the chest. Next, hold both fists, clenched, one a short space in front of the other at waist height.

Intentional Offside
After blowing whistle for offside, point toward offending team's special spot with nonwhistle hand.

Interference
Crossed arms with fists clenched stationary in front of chest.

Hooking
A series of tugging motions with both arms, as if pulling something toward the stomach.

Icing
The back official signals the icing situation by fully extending his free arm (without whistle) at a 65° angle. The front official shall indicate the icing is completed by extending his free arm over his head, up straight, and blowing his whistle. The back official then will move to the faceoff spot and cross arms to indicate the icing.

Timeout/Unsportsmanlike Conduct
Using both hands to form a "T" in front of the chest.

Tripping
Keep both skates on the ice when signaling, using right hand on the leg.

"Wash-out"
Both arms swung shoulder height, not waist height.

Kneeing
A single slapping of the right palm to the left knee, keeping both skate blades on the ice.

Misconduct
Hands should be moved once from sides down to hips. Thus, point to player first, hands to hips second.

Obstruction
Hands in the middle of the body in the shape of an "O". Additional infraction following obstruction.

Penalty Shot
Arms crossed (fists clenched) above the head.

Spearing
A single jabbing motion with both hands together, thrust forward in front of the chest, then dropping hands to the side.

Slashing
One stop with the nonwhistle hand across the straightened forearm of the other hand.

A WORD FROM THE COACH

Good evening everyone and welcome to the Solent Arena for tonight's game against the Romford Raiders!

Two weeks ago we got back to winning ways against Bristol and Chelmsford in a vital double header which saw us move back into 2nd place after a tough run of results. The home game against Bristol was a hard fought game in which our experience on the smaller ice surface made the difference. Away to Chelmsford was slightly different. We went with a system to restrict high scoring chances and whilst the shot count was high, we managed to get the game into a shootout and take the extra point and the win! Last weekend we had a difficult game against Slough with one of the positives being the amount of supporters who travelled up to the game. We were all very humbled by your efforts, noise and commitment to our club.

Tonight we face another young energetic team with Romford coming to town. The Raiders have lots of energy and fire power and defeated us against the odds at their rink earlier in the season! The boys will be looking to get to winning ways immediately so we will be giving our all for the two points!

Bring the noise

SPRING CUP WINNER '21

A very warm welcome to both home and the away supporters.

Touching on last week briefly we were just not clinical enough and let ourselves and the fans down. We seem to be missing that hunger which will be addressed this week with a team meeting. I am very sorry to the fans who travelled to watch that game you were very noisy, and you deserve more.

This week we look to start afresh and implement a new game plan tonight against the Romford Junior Raiders. Romford are known for never giving up and seem to create something out of nothing so we must be switched on and get this job done early.

Tomorrow we travel to Invicta which will be a tough game but one we can continue to flow through if we play the right way this evening.

I can assure you we really appreciate your continued support and look forward to seeing you after the game

See you out there #8

ONE FAN ALONE

What a game a few weeks ago against the Bristol Pitbulls. They are – in my view – an underrated team, and I thought the match last week was a fantastic one. Plenty of goals, and a nail biter of a score line, but even aside from that I enjoyed the game. The Devils played well, being aggressive on the puck and pushing forward, and defending as a team when Bristol pushed toward our goal.

What with it being a double-header weekend, I was a bit worried with the Devils going to Chelmsford for a Sunday night match up, and both teams took it to the wire!

Chico made more than seventy saves against Chelmsford on Sunday, including a pair of penalty saves as the game went through regulation and overtime, meaning it needed to be settled in a shootout. Cool as ever, Alex Murray was the man who put the penalty away, securing the win and getting the Devils a four point weekend.

This was great, I thought, the Devils have put their New Year's problems behind them and are moving on, hopefully to dominate once more and rightfully claim second place in the league and start putting some distance between them and the rest of the pack.

Unfortunately, the game against Slough didn't go to plan, and Murray's lonely goal wasn't enough against the surging Jets, when the Devils came away after conceding four goals – one of which being an empty net goal with just nine seconds left in the game.

Another double header weekend this weekend, starting with Raiders tonight. Struggling a bit in the league, but still capable of causing upset to the Devils. Tomorrow, a big trip to Invicta, who are snapping at our heels and ready to pounce on us.
