Solent Devils Vs Romford Buccaneers

Game Day Programme

Saturday 04th November

Face Off – 1700

A Word From The Coach

Good Evening everyone and welcome to the Solent Arena as we return to hockey a week on from the tragic events that has moved the entire hockey family.

Naturally today will be a difficult environment. I, like millions others, wish to send my condolences, love and strength to the family, friends and loved ones of Adam Johnson, who sadly passed away last Saturday following a freak incident on the ice.

It has been a week of reflection, learning and listening for me as a coach, who is responsible for so many others, and I was pleased the NIHL South 1 mutually agreed to suspend fixtures on Sunday in memory of Adam.

Looking ahead, we have discussed and shared our thoughts as a team regarding player safety and, moving forward, we will be supporting all the players with upgrading equipment. We thank all those supporters and businesses who have reached out to support us financially with this task.

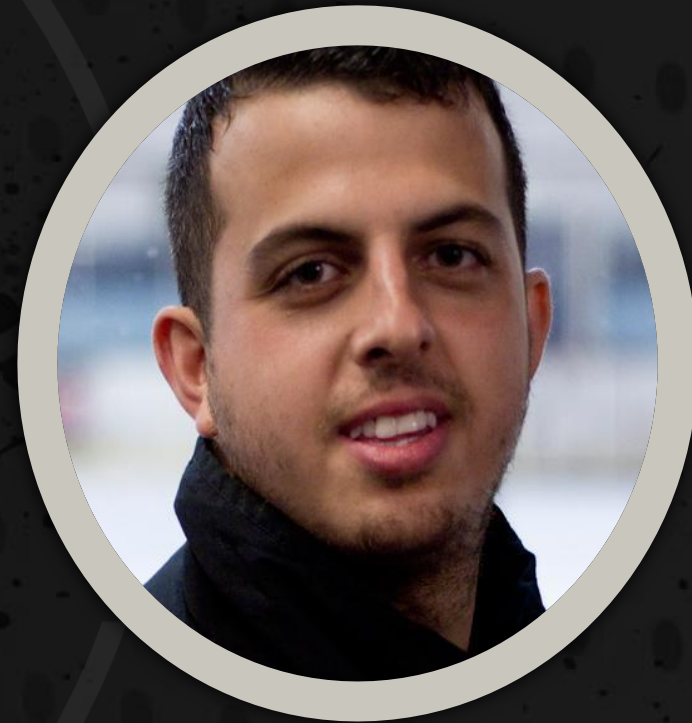

You will notice tonight that some players, including myself, are still opting to play without a neckguard. This in no way is to disregard the movement, but more a transition which will take time. We are fully supporting those who wish to make the transition immediately and hope you are able to support us all throughout this transitional period.

Tonight, all proceeds from the raffles, Shirt off the Back and 50/50, will be going to the Adam Johnson fundraiser so please give generously if able to do so.

Today more than ever #TogetherStronger stands true. Today we play for the memory of Adam and his legacy.

It's Not All About Us

The stats below do not truly represent Romford this season. They have had some frustrating games yet also pulled off some great wins, notably their 6-2 win against Chelmsford. It is an indication of their determination and resilience, which should not be underestimated. An experienced side, they are poised to cause some upsets this season and will be looking to challenge the top teams for positioning.

They have several players to keep an eye on throughout the game. Tjay Anderson is an experienced goal scorer who will be looking to increase his points. Their current points leaders are Brynley Capps, Luca Pascale and Joe Tamlin. With their impressive number of goals and assists, any of these players will be looking to cause the Devils problems and set the tone for the rest of the season. With the likes of Long, Campbell and Wakeling in defence and veteran netminder Sonny Phillips, they have a strong defensive team with which to build up their counter-attacks. Overall, it's likely to be an exciting game as both teams will be wanting to take the initiative in this first meeting.

Captains Corner

A very warm welcome to both the home and travelling supporters. I would like to say let's get excited for this evening, which we must do with the greatest respect in memory of Adam Johnson. Such a tragic and sad end for someone who gave his life to ice hockey, but I am sure he'll be looking down on us, proud we are still playing the sport he loved.

I'm sure you've heard many people talking about the implementation of wearing a neck guard early next year, and as a Club Captain, I fully support anyone wanting to wear one to protect themselves as no one should ever lose their life this way by a freak accident.

Of course, last weekend's game was not played in respect of the incident that happened Saturday night and, as a club, I'm glad we made that decision which I'm sure you will agree with.

Tonight we play Romford Buccaneers and we need to make sure we get the job done. I'm sure you've seen this year already it's up for grabs for anyone and if we want to be contending for this title we need to start getting the train rolling.

Please give generously for the 50/50 and Shirt off His Back as you may be aware the profits are going towards Adam Johnson's fundraising.

It will be great to see all you fans over the Sailmaker after the game as us Devils rely heavily on having a great community and fan base around us, it's great socialising and bonding with you all.

Make some noise and I'll see you out there! #8
