Solent Devils Vs Milton Keynes Thunder

Game Day Programme

Saturday 18th November

Face Off – 1700

A Word From The Coach

Good Evening everyone and welcome to the Solent Arena as we welcome Milton Keynes Thunder in what will be our first encounter of the season!

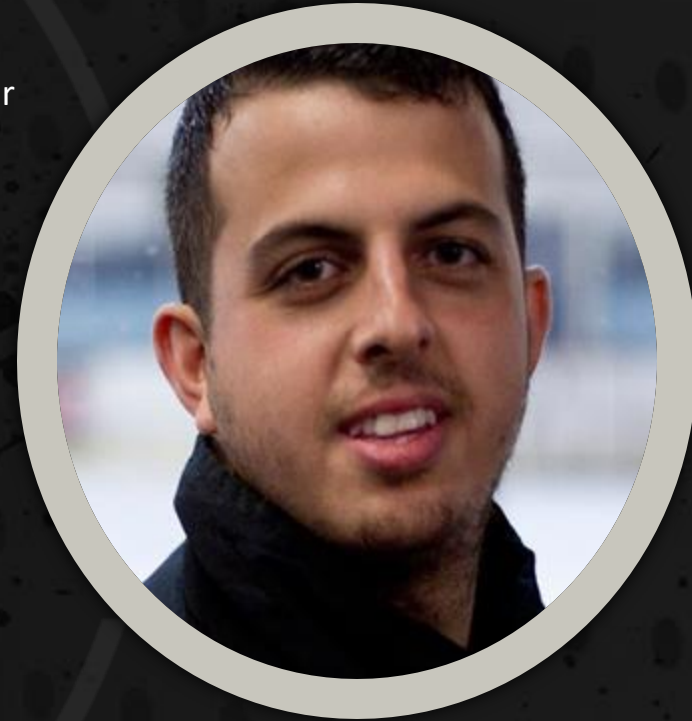

Last weekend saw us continue our good form with an impressive 2-1 away win at Invicta. Playing the Dynamo in their own barn is never easy, but I was really impressed with how resilient the team were in defence, especially on the penalty kill. Aaron had a great game in goal and, to his credit, so did Rider for Invicta. Ultimately it was the perfect road win and I was happy to come away with the two points.

Tonight we must ensure we are on our game to keep this recent streak going. The Thunder are a young, energetic team with a never die attitude. We will be working on ensuring we are creating offensive opportunities in training this week, as I feel if we achieve our shot target per period, the goals will come.

Hopefully we will have a few players back in the line up as we prepare for our first double header of the year, and a great chance of picking up 4 points.

It's Not All About Us

Milton Keynes Thunder is a young, energetic and resilient team. Despite struggling to make a mark on the table, Thunder has the potential to cause an upset, particularly this season, with the league looking open to all takers. They play a fast paced, physical game and often use this speed to get behind the defence or create counter-attacking opportunities from within their own zone. Despite their speed, they keep pushing until the very end of the game and, in any close games, it would be at this point they could prove most dangerous. Defensively, they have a strong penalty kill record at 76% and a save percentage of .851%.

MacGarvey leads the team in points so far this season, with 3 goals and 2 assists with Dickinson and Hamill close behind on 3 and 2 points respectively and it is likely that any attack will end with one of these three taking the shot. Davies and Smith are key players for any counter-attack opportunity, both with 2 assists each, as well as being key defensive players. Norton has shown an impressive season in the net so far this season, with a save percentage of .832%, or saving 228 out of the 274 shots made against him. Thunder will be looking to take the initiative in this first meeting between the two teams this season and be eager to start making moves up the table, something they are capable of doing.

Captains Corner

A very warm welcome to both the home and away supporters. Following on from last weekend and our recent games, I feel, with some slight line adjustments, the Devils are finding their feet, and the team is working very hard as a unit to make sure we dig deep and get these games secured and two points in the bag.

As I'm sure you already know, the league is up for grabs by anyone this year and we must continue to stay in the race and ensure we finish this year strong.

Milton Keynes is a team who bring pace and also some great talent and experience in this league. We must ensure we stay switched on from the start and work hard each and every shift so we can get the job done for you home supporters.

It will be great to see you over the Sailmaker after the game or even better travelling away to Oxford tomorrow for our away game.

A big thank you to everyone who comes and supports, home or away! I can't tell you how much it means to us all, we're all very grateful!

Make some noise and I'll see you out there! #8
