Solent Devils Vs Slough Jets

Game Day Programme

Saturday 20th September

Face Off – 1700

A Word From The Coach

Good Evening everyone and welcome back to the Solent Arena as we kick off our first home league fixture of the 2025/26 season. Tonight, the reigning League Champions, the Slough Jets, are in town in what will be an exciting fixture.

The first two weekends of the season saw us on the road against Swindon and Chelmsford respectively, and we have returned with maximum points, which is a really positive start to our campaign. What was most impressive was the impact of our entire squad, with the likes of Kris, Cam and Clouts stepping up into important roles logging big minutes and having a positive impact.

Chelmsford was especially pleasing given how difficult a fixture that can be. I can't help but look back and wonder had we won our home leg of the Cup Finals last year, I'm confident that performance we gave last weekend would have been seen in the Final last year. But we can't turn back time, so we are just happy with how the season has started for now.

Looking ahead to Slough, we know we have a tough first home fixture. After Streatham lost to Invicta in the last few weeks of the season, Slough swooped in to take the League crown! They are a very talented and skilled squad who work tirelessly in all areas of the game. For us to be successful tonight, we need to match their intensity and capitalise when they make mistakes, either on the ice or when in the box.

I'm looking forward to welcoming back our wonderful supporters in what should be a barn stormer of a game!

The McTimoney Approach to Chiropractic

The McTimoney approach to chiropractic was developed by the late John McTimoney over 50 years ago and is taught only at the McTimoney College of Chiropractic in Abingdon, near Oxford. It is well known for being a precise, whole-body approach to chiropractic care.

The gentle nature of chiropractic the McTimoney way makes it suitable for people throughout their lifetime from babyhood to those in later life.

A package of chiropractic care may be used regularly to help maintain good posture, promote health and improve performance, no matter what it is you do, from a high-performance athlete to a senior member of the community enjoying a potter in the garden.

Patients undergoing chiropractic care often report benefits from:

- Ankle sprain (short term management)
- Cramp

Chiropractic care is covered by most medical insurance companies including PPP, HSA, Norwich Union, First Assist, Legal and General, CS Healthcare and Standard Life.

Chiropractic is a primary health care profession focused on your health and wellbeing

- Elbow pain and tennis elbow (lateral epicondylitis) arising from associated musculoskeletal conditions of the back and neck, but not isolated occurrences
- Headache arising from the neck (cervicogenic)
- Inability to relax
- Joint pains
- Joint pains including hip and knee pain from osteoarthritis as an adjunct to core OA treatments and exercise
- Back Pain
- Generalised aches and pains
- Lumbago
- Mechanical neck pain (as opposed to neck pain following injury i.e. whiplash)
- Migraine prevention
- Minor sports injuries and tensions
- Muscle spasms
- Plantar fasciitis (short term management)
- Rotator cuff injuries, disease or disorders
- Sciatica
- Shoulder complaints (dysfunction, disorders and pain)

It's Not All About Us

Following their successes last season, and having had pre-season friendlies with the RedHawks, the Jets will be keen to hit the ground running in their first regular game of the season. With a spectacular 6-0 win in the NIHL S1 Playoffs at the end of last season, as well as winning the league, the Jets will be heading into the season with a lot of expectation behind them. Coupled with a 40th Season and a new NIHL S2 team, they'll be looking to make a big impact to make this season memorable for themselves and their fans.

With a fast-paced, clinical and young team, the Jets have several key players to watch tonight. Goodchild finished the regular season last year with an impressive 34 goals in 36 games. Coupled with Hemmings-Maher or Minter, and they'll form a dangerous attacking team. Despite being in defence, Cole, Hatfield and Lindgren are as adept at scoring as they are denying opportunities, and likely to be the start of any Jets' counter-attacks. Should any attack get past these key defenders, Smital has proven to be a tough final opponent to crack, ending last season with a very impressive 0.933 save percentage.

Captains Corner

Good evening, everyone and welcome back to the rink for our first home game of the 2025/26 season! Tonight, we play the Slough Jets, and we're all buzzing to get out in front of our fans after starting the season on the road.

The lads have made a great start, with two big wins away from home, and that's given us the momentum heading into tonight's game. We've been working hard in training, making sure we're ready for what will be another tough game tonight.

There's always something special about stepping out on home ice, and we're hungry to put on a performance for you all and keep the train rolling. The boys are ready, focused and want nothing apart from the 3 points tonight.

Your support means everything to us – it lifts the team and makes this rink a tough place for any opposition to come. Let's make it loud tonight and get behind the lads!
