

Solent Devils Vs Invicta Dynamios

Game Day Programme

Saturday 4th October

Face Off – 1700

A Word From The Coach

Good evening everyone and welcome to the Solent Arena as the Invicta Dynamos roll into town! We trust their players, management and supporters has a safe trip as we look to bounce back from our narrow defeat last weekend!

The season has started faster than most on the south coast and overall, I have been relatively happy with our games albeit slightly frustrated to lose leads late in the game.

Last weekend was no different. Whilst Invicta probably deserved something from the game; with 4 minutes to go leading 2-1, we have to be better in seeing out the game. That said, we had so many positive performances in particular Aaron in net and our top unit.

Tonight's a chance to make amends and the guys worked incredible hard in training as we try out some new line combinations with a few players returning to the line up! Invicta are a hard and fast team with individuals with tremendous skill sets! The new import has size, and skill so will be impactful in our small rink.

It's been a few months since they ended our campaign last year, so the boys are certainly eager to set the record straight. Tomorrow, we head to Romford for our first trip to Sapphire and our first double header. We are hoping for a positive weekend and 6 points to keep us at the top of the table

The McTimoney Approach to Chiropractic

The McTimoney approach to chiropractic was developed by the late John McTimoney over 50 years ago and is taught only at the McTimoney College of Chiropractic in Abingdon, near Oxford. It is well known for being a precise, whole-body approach to chiropractic care.

The gentle nature of chiropractic the McTimoney way makes it suitable for people throughout their lifetime from babyhood to those in later life.

A package of chiropractic care may be used regularly to help maintain good posture, promote health and improve performance, no matter what it is you do, from a high-performance athlete to a senior member of the community enjoying a potter in the garden.

Patients undergoing chiropractic care often report benefits from:

- Ankle sprain (short term management)
- Cramp

Chiropractic care is covered by most medical insurance companies including PPP, HSA, Norwich Union, First Assist, Legal and General, CS Healthcare and Standard Life.

Chiropractic is a primary health care profession focused on your health and wellbeing

- Headache arising from the neck (cervicogenic)
- Inability to relax
- Joint pains
- Joint pains including hip and knee pain from osteoarthritis as an adjunct to core OA treatments and exercise
- Back Pain
- Generalised aches and pains
- Lumbago
- Mechanical neck pain (as opposed to neck pain following injury i.e. whiplash)
- Migraine prevention
- Minor sports injuries and tensions
- Muscle spasms
- Plantar fasciitis (short term management)
- Rotator cuff injuries, disease or disorders
- Sciatica
- Shoulder complaints (dysfunction, disorders and pain)

It's Not All About Us

After last weeks shootout game, both teams will be coming out hard for the win this weekend. With the Dynamos having taken the game last week, they'll want to continue their season momentum and push hard for early league positioning.

Having not made many changes this season, the team seems settled in playing with each other, doing well to read their passes and quickly set up defences that lead into lightning counter-attacks. Smith and Gatenby have both made a great start this season with 2 goals each, with Smith just edging Gatenby on points with an assist. As the team captain, Connolly is always one to watch, his excellent reading of plays makes him especially dangerous on counter-attack opportunities. With Tombs, Lillis and Stokes on defence, any attacking player will be hard pressed to get a good line on the goal and, should they achieve that, Windebank has proven himself a capable shot stopper.

Captains Corner

Good evening everyone and welcome back to the rink for this weekend's double header! First up tonight we take on Invicta Dynamos at home, and the lads are ready to put things right after last weekend's tough shootout loss. We've worked hard in training this week on the areas where we fell short, and everyone is hungry to get back out there and make sure we come away with the 3 points.

Tomorrow we're on the road to Romford for the first time this season. We know they're a young, fast side who will come at us hard from the opening faceoff, so we'll need to be ready from the first puck drop.

Our aim this weekend is nothing less than 6 points, and the boys are determined to make it happen. We're buzzing to be back on home ice tonight, and with the fans behind us, we know this rink can be a really tough place for teams to come. Your support means so much to us, it lifts the team when we need it most. Let's make it loud and get the weekend off to the best possible start!
